JUDGMENT

Since the vehicle seized for unauthorised transport of sand is subject to adjudication by the District Collector, W.P. is disposed of directing the second respondent to release the vehicle on petitioner depositing rupees ten thousand and after endorsing in the RC book that release is subject to adjudication by the Collector. If petitioner wants release of sand also along with vehicle, he will deposit a further sum of rupees one thousand along with rupees ten thousand as stated above. The vehicle will be released immediately on making payment. The third respondent will complete adjudication and adjust payments towards fine.
